You may have noticed that for the past few years in Germany summer hasn't really lived up to expectation. Things are definitely looking up in 2016 though, as Leipzig-based DJ/producer Marcapasos delivers his eagerly awaited debut release on Warner Music: "Girl, I Wanna" is canned 'tropical house' heat, guaranteed to light up the international dance floors!

"Girl, I Wanna" takes Inner Circle's '92 #1 hit "Sweat (A La La La La Long)" and gives it a spanking new tropical house makeover, turning the dusty yet cult-worthy reggae-pop tune into a timeless club classic. What remains is that laid-back, beach-ready feeling, underlaid with exotic instruments, fresh beats, a mesmerizing Caribbean groove as well as an infectious set of vocals. Call it house 2.0. Enter the summer of 2016.
